TWO HUNDRED PERISHED

BURNING OF BRITISH STEAMSHIP IN HARBOR OF MALTA LITERAL HOLOCAUST.

THEY HAD NO CHANCE OF ESCAPE

Before the Eyes of Horrified Spectators Passengers and Crew Go to Death by Fire and Water—Gale Prevented Rescue.

Valetta, Island of Malta, Nov. 25.—Nearly 200 persons, passengers and crew of the Ellerman line steamer Sardina, are believed to have perished today, when the steamer was destroyed by fire, just after she had sailed for Alexandria, Egypt.

The Sardina was scarcely a mile off from Grand Harbor when the first sign of fire appeared, and with a strong wind to fan the flames the entire ship was soon ablaze. The passengers and crew had scarcely a chance for their lives.

A wild scene of panic ensued on board, as the rapidly spreading flames drove the passengers to the rails, and many excited ones, not even waiting for boats to be lowered, plunged into the sea. Scores are believed to have been drowned. Others were trapped in the fire and literally roasted to death or smothered without a chance for their lives.

Many of the crafts in the harbor rushed to the assistance of the imperiled liner. The high seas and half gale, however, made it impossible for them to approach the Sardina, and they could do little in the way of giving aid.

The Sardina left Liverpool Nov. 14 with a cargo of general merchandise for Mediterranean ports. The crew numbered forty-four and about twenty first class and six second class passengers embarked at Liverpool. Most of the other passengers are undoubtedly Levantines, Maltese and Egyptians.

It is the custom of the latter when sailing to pitch their tents on the decks and these hampered the work of the crew and prevented many escapes.

HAD A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Mrs. J. C. Walker Thrown from a Sleigh and Injured.

The friends of Mrs. J. C. Walker, of St. Louis, will be grieved to know that she met with a painful accident yesterday while on her way fishing with her mother, who is visiting her from Sedalia, and her children.

Mrs. Walker's horse took fright and ran away, throwing the occupants out of the sleigh. Mrs. Walker's mother was bruised considerably and the children escaped with slight bruises, but Mrs. Walker was carried to her home unconscious. Her physician, however, thinks she will soon recover.

THE STATE SCORED A POINT

In the Lamphere Murder Trial at La Porte, Indiana.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 25.—The state scored a big victory today in the Lamphere murder trial, when Judge Richter, after exhaustive arguments by both sides, announced that he would instruct the jury if the evidence showed that Lamphere set fire to the Guinness house, even if the fire did not cause the death of any person therein, that the jury must find him guilty of arson.

It is expected the case will go to the jury this afternoon.

C., Nov. 25.—Serenio Payne, chairman of the house ways and means committee, today received reply to the invitation extended Andrew Carnegie to appear before the committee at the hearing on the metal schedule. Mr. Carnegie thanks Mr. Payne for the invitation, but asks to be excused, saying he has served his full term in Washington upon tariff matters.

Count Boni's Suit Has Begun.

Paris, Nov. 25.—The suit of Count Boni de Castellane against his former wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, of New York, and is now the wife of Prince Heli de Sagan, for the custody of his three children opened here today. The court room was jammed to the doors when the hearing was called. Many Americans were in the throng of spectators.

No Democrat-Sentinel Tomorrow.

In order that each and every employee of the Democrat-Sentinel may have an opportunity of spending Thanksgiving at home, there will not be any issue of the paper tomorrow, but it will appear Friday afternoon with all of the local news of that day and Thursday.

HAD A TRIPLE LYNCHING

THREE NEGROES HANGED NEAR SCENE OF A MURDER IN TENNESSEE.

WERE CONVICTED BEFORE JUSTICE

Troops Too Late to Prevent Execution of Men Who Murdered a Tiptonville Deputy Sheriff Saturday Night.

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 25.—The little town of Tiptonville, bordering on Reelfoot lake, the scene of the recent lynching of Capt. Quentin Rankin by nightriders, witnessed the lynching late last afternoon of three negroes, who were arrested yesterday morning for murdering Special Deputy Sheriff Richard Burress and fatally wounding John Hall, a deputy sheriff. The negroes' names were Marshall, Edward and Jim Stinback. These brothers created a disturbance at a religious meeting near Tiptonville Saturday night, and when the officers attempted to arrest them a fight ensued, in which the negroes shot the officers and made their escape.

It was barely daylight Sunday morning before a posse of citizens from Tiptonville and surrounding places were in pursuit, but they successfully eluded the white men until 8 o'clock yesterday morning, when they were surrounded and captured in a swamp near the village of Ridgely.

A mob quickly gathered and threats of lynching were indulged in. As a last resort, S. J. Caldwell, a townsman, and Sheriff Haynes, went before Justice Lee Davis, explained the situation and told of the menacing attitude of the crowd which thronged the principal streets leading to the jail.

Justice Davis at once agreed to open his court at 5 o'clock, summon a jury of twelve men, and allow the negroes, after all evidence that could be adduced was heard, to be duly sentenced to death.

Meanwhile Governor Patterson was advised by telephone of the situation and ordered a company of militia in this city to proceed with all haste, and, if possible, secure the negroes and conduct them to a place of safety. The troops were started at once, but failed to arrive in time to prevent the lynching.

At the trial all of the evidence of those who had seen the killing was heard, and in an incredibly short time the case was given the jury, who in a few minutes returned a verdict of guilty and fixed the penalty at death.

The sentence had barely been passed on the three negroes, when the mob, with a whoop and a yell, swarmed the court room and seizing the prisoners rushed them to a large tree near the edge of town and hanged them, firing volley after volley into the air as the bodies were drawn up from the earth.

Two Murderers Are Pardoned.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 25.—Governor Hoch today pardoned from the state penitentiary David E. Davis, of Leavenworth county, who was sentenced to hang in 1890 for the murder of his wife, and Thomas Marbut, of Cherokee county, sentenced to serve ten years in 1906 for murder in the second degree. Marbut was charged with having smothered his 10-year-old stepson. Davis goes free December 1 and Marbut January 1.

THE SPAN OF LIFE

MAN GAVE HER HIS NOTES

FOR A GREAT WRONG HE DID HER IN INDIANA TWENTY YEARS AGO.

REMORSE FOR ATTEMPTED ASSAULT

Was at That Time a Girl in Her Teens, But Now, After All of These Years, She Brings Suit on the Notes.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 25.—For almost half a century Theodore P. Bannell, founder of Grand Junction, Colo., and late capitalist of Santa Monica, suffered from remorse and a repentant conscience unparalleled in western court records, and approached in fiction only by Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter," according to statements in a suit filed in the United States circuit court by Melissa Z. Funk, of Attica, Ind., to recover $20,000 from his estate.

Notes for that amount alleged to have been signed by Mr. Bannell in favor of the woman as part of an effort to recompense her for an attempt at mistreatment made, it is claimed, in 1859, are set forth in the complaint.

The first is dated April 26, 1860, and with its accompanying statement, reveals the very heart of the whole story. It appears in this language:

"Rob Roy, Ind., April 26, 1860.—I promise to pay Melissa Funk, on order, five thousand dollars for the damage I did to her in 1859, and for her love and gratitude I bear to her I pledge my estate and all I am worth with the payment of this note, after my death, by the person that settles my estate without cost to the bearer.—Theodore Bannell.

"My explanation, no one will misconstrue and blame Miss Funk I love her with a pure, divine love. Would marry her if she would marry me. I went to her home in a storm, found her alone, as I thought I would, I assaulted her. In a desperate fight between us she was badly hurt. I gave up when she got an ax. She was only 13 or 14 years old at that time. I begged forgiveness. She may tell the rest. She never lies.—Theodore Bannell."

Not many years later Bannell came west as far as Colorado, and for many years lived the life of a plainman.

Barn and Contents Burned.

farm three miles southeast of Hughesville, had his barn struck by lightning last night and the building, including the contents of farm machinery, corn and other feed, was totally consumed. Insurance was carried in the Continental, of which Pont Meriwether is agent, but the amount is not known at this time.

Will Be Married Friday.

William M. Wilkens, of Allville, Mo., and Margaret Schnakenberg, of the same place, were granted a marriage license here today and will be united in marriage in Johnson county by Rev. August Browe Friday.

"ARE OFF" AT SAVANNAH

THE GREATEST MOTOR RACING MEET IN THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTRY.

TODAY IS ONLY A CURTAIN RAISER

Every Possible Precaution Has Been Taken to Prevent Accidents—Premier Race Takes Place There Tomorrow.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 25.—With the start of the international light car race today, the greatest automobile racing meet in the history of America is on. While today's contest is only a curtain raiser for tomorrow's Grand Prize race, a vast crowd of enthusiasts filled the grand stand and gathered at all the available points of vantage along the magnificent course.

Every available precaution has been taken to prevent accidents and over a score of physicians have been stationed along the track, ready to give aid to the injured. On every lip is heard praise of the arrangements made by the Savannah committee. All the visitors have been cared for in an adequate manner, and there have been no complaints of excitement.

While the light cars are speeding around the course today, arrangements are going steadily forward for tomorrow's Grand Prize the premier race of American motoring. Few sporting events have been conducted under such notable patronage.

Boston Man Wins First.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 25.—William A. Hilliard, of Boston, driving the Italian car, Lancia, won the first international light car race ever run in this country. The time was three hours, forty-three minutes and thirty-three seconds.

SOUL KISS WAS NOT IN IT

COMPARED TO WHAT WIFE OF AN ACTOR SAW ON A RAILROAD TRAIN.

SHE PEEPED INTO A COMPARTMENT

Saw Her Husband Bending Over Actress Who Had Not Much Clothing on Shapely Form Above Her Waist.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—A sprightly recital of the philanderings of Alfred Sully Guard, Thespian, who appears as the Prince in that sterling melodrama, "The Prince of Spendthrifts," enlivened the morning in Judge Frost's court room here.

His wife, known to the stage as Blanche Shirley, with the most infectious good humor and a complaisance uncommon in such cases, asked to have the marital knot cut by the judge, because her husband had never seemed to feel that it was very binding anyway.

Blanche Shirley—in private life Mrs. Blanche Little Guard—is now appearing at the Alhambra theater, where she is playing the leading female role in "The Millionaire and the Policeman's Wife." She is a very comely young woman, with an engaging smile.

She said that she and her husband were married in Cleveland on September 21, 1905, and that they had lived together until April 21, 1907. Then she proceeded to develop the story.

"My husband was appearing in one play, I in another," she said. "I heard repeatedly that he was altogether too devoted to one of the women of his company, Miss Ida Marie Neisoff. I was told that they were living together at various hotels as man and wife. I was hurt by his conduct, and told him so. At one time when he was playing in New York I received a telegram from him.

The court examined the telegram, which read: "I'm alone now. Send me $35."

Mrs. Hyman had been the involuntary witness of a little episode in a sleeping car running between Milwaukee and St. Paul, which she recited in detail.

"By mistake I chanced to open the door of a private compartment. In the room I saw Miss Nelson and Mr. Guard."

"Tell the court what condition they were in," prompted her attorney.

"Well," said the girl, "Miss Nelson hadn't much on above her waist, and the man was bending over her and had his arms about her. I backed out as quickly as I could."

TODAY EVACUATION DAY

RATHER, 125TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIKING OF BRITISH FROM NEW YORK.

TO BE PATRIOTIC OBSERVANCES

This Late November Day Amounts Really to a Manhattan Fourth of July—Thanksgiving Eve Marrymaking.

New York, Nov. 25.—"Evacuation day," the 125th anniversary of the evacuation of New York by the British troops, was informally observed in the metropolis today. Flags floated from many buildings and patriotic observances will take place tonight, coupled with the Thanksgiving eve merrymaking.

This late November day amounts really to a Manhattan Fourth of July, and was so observed when Sons of the Revolution were literal sons. Until a time within the generation now living there was a veteran of 1812 to assist in the Battery flag raising.

From September 17, 1776, to November 25, 1783, a British army remained a blight on this city. Within those seven years and two months a population of 200,000 sank to less than 10,000. Two great fires left long blocks of ruins in Whitehall, Broad, Beaver, Vesey and Pearl streets and Broadway, and there was no energy for rebuilding. The city was pathetic, dismal, disrupted, unclean, almost ungoverned, a wreck of matter and of mind.

One would have said that only a miracle could restore a community so prostrated. Possibly the evacuation was the miracle. At any rate, revival began with the marching down to the Battery of the red-coat intruders and the marching in from the north of Washington's well-tried Continentals. In 1790, only seven years after its emancipation from British control, old New York had passed the 23,000 line in population.

GOING LIKE "HOT CAKES"

TICKETS OF ADMISSION FOR THE KETCHEL-PAPKE MILL TONIGHT.

EACH MAN CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

It Looks Very Much Like an Even Proposition, but Papke Will Have a Slight Call When the Time Is Called.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—Wildly excited followers of the pugilistic game are flocking into San Francisco today by the hundreds, and in the cafes where sporting men congregate the sole topic of conversation is this evening's great battle for the middleweight title between Bill Papke and Stanley Ketchel.

Tickets of admission are selling like hot cakes and the big Auditorium will be crowded with eager fight fans when the Grand Rapids boy and the Illinois Thunderbolt face each other in the ring.

Both Ketchel and Papke issued statements today in which they asserted their assurance of victory, and both declare that the scheduled twenty rounds will be quite unnecessary to decide the winner.

Friends of both men are backing their favorite heavily and shrewd followers of the game figure that more money will be played on the middleweights than on any two men who have locked horns in an important pugilistic event since Burns and Squires amused the crowd for half a round.

It looks like such an even proposition that nearly every sportsman is willing to take a reasonable chance.

While the betting on tonight's battle opened at even money, there are indications that Papke will rule a slight ringside favorite. Papke's last decisive victory over the former holder of the middleweight title was so clean that many of the local sportsmen will ride right with him in the belief that he is strong enough to repeat it.

On the other hand, Ketchel has admirers in plenty who firmly believe that he is capable of beating Papke and that his downfall on last Labor day was the result of a lucky punch in the opening round. They argue that Ketchel will be far more cautious this time and that his wonderful strength will carry him over the distance.

FOUND $2,000 IN CORNCOBS

Rats Scatteren Gold That Had Been Tied in Paper.

Lebanon, Ind., Nov. 25.—At the home of David Slayback, an eccentric bachelor, who was found dead near Lebanon Saturday, the neighbors yesterday found in a pile of corn cobs $2,000, all in gold.

The money had originally been tied up in paper, but rats had been at work and the coins were well scattered through the pile of corn cobs.

A few years ago Mr. Slayback was victimized out of $2,000 by sharpers, who sold him some worthless paper. Two years ago he built a church at Rosston, paying all the expenses himself.

NO SUICIDE PACT FOR HER

Wife Who Refused Is Murdered by Husband, Who Kills Himself.

New York, Nov. 25.—Failing to induce his wife to enter into a suicide pact with him, Max Goldstein, a tailor, yesterday murdered his wife by cutting her throat.

He then drew the blade of the knife used on his wife across his own throat with such force that he was almost decapitated. He died almost instantly.

CHIP ON KAISER'S SHOULDER.

Whether or not the story printed in the American press is an accurate summary of the now famous interview between Dr. Hale and Emperor William may never be known, but even though denials were to be made by both parties to the dialogue, it would not wholly erase the impression that the kaiser has been quoted correctly.

It is, of course, well authenticated that such an interview did actually take place, as has been described;
that it was secured by the American magazine writer for reproduction in the Century; that the publication had the story in plate form ready for issue when its plans suddenly were changed and the whole thing was suppressed, presumably upon representations from Berlin.

With these known facts it is easy to conjecture that the emperor talked upon world politics. What he really said can be known with certainty only from information furnished by himself or by Dr. Hale. What it is claimed he said lacks authority, but what has been published under this qualification has so much plausibility, both in circumstance and in statement, as to warrant its acceptance until proof to the contrary is furnished.

Every word attributed to the kaiser is fraught with grave importance to the whole of Europe, especially to France, England and Russia. Germany's suspicion of Great Britain and her contempt for France have been matters of common knowledge for years past. What effect they might have upon Germany's future course, to what extent she might be influenced by passion and apprehension;
whether they would involve herself and others in war—these have been the paramount issues of European politics, and they have not as yet been perceptibly cleared. If the emperor has been correctly quoted the status of Europe today is full of all the dangerous possibilities conjured up by the fears and imaginations of half a century.

Germany believes her military strength is at its supreme efficiency.
She figures that it is stronger than England's. She is confident of her ability to whip France with one hand, and Russia is too weak to be rated.
This self-confidence accounts for many things, but is most significant in connection with the Moroccan incident, when Germany forced France to yield, even with Great Britain backing France up. It shows that Germany would have fought, as she said she would. It shows, moreover,

Germany's willingness to fight today.
The war emperor is prepared for the conflict he appears to believe is inevitable, and in which Germany has almost as much at stake throughout the world as in her national existence.

The other powers will not openly resent the strictures of William, but they are warned what to expect in the clashes of diplomacy hereafter.
To put it briefly, the chip the kaiser carried underneath his coat is now exposed to plain view.

GOING THROUGH HER HUS-BAND'S POCKETS.

That a wife not only has the privilege, but that it is her duty, to go through her husband's pockets, is the decision of a police judge in Washington, D. C.

"It shows the interest your wife has in you," says the judge to the complaining husband, as he lectured him in court on the road to matrimonial bliss. "It shows that she loves you. A woman who does not go through the pockets of her husband does not love him."

Whether this is good law or not may be regarded as a disputed question. But there is some philosophy in it that will be regarded as decidedly sound by many of the fair sex. If a woman is not to be permitted to pry into her husband's secrets, his letters and his pocketbook, she is, in many instances, deprived of nine-tenths of the joy of living.

She is the wife who fondly imagines that her husband is loved by at least one other woman. To find proof in his pocket confirms this suspicion, and so gives her, not pain, but exquisite, triumphant joy. If, on the other hand, careful and persistent searching fails to reveal proof against him, she takes consolation in the fact and is happy in his fidelity. In either event, therefore, the practice yields satisfactory results. Whether she finds incriminating evidence or does not, she has enjoyed the satisfaction of going through his pockets, of exercising a generally disputed right—and that to a woman is in itself the very next thing to perfect bliss.

And then, in addition, the keen joy of secretly extracting change, or even bills, sometimes from his pockets, and using them to such good advantage in the dry goods and millinery shops, later to appear before him with a new ribbon or a new hat or dress, and causing him to vainly inquire how she got it and where she got the money to get it with.

In all probability he will for the moment imagine that some other man is in love with her and is secretly giving her presents, and if so, this is only just a very, very little short of heaven on earth.

All this and more, too, is involved in the notable decision handed down by a magistrate who presides over a court in the nation's capital. In spite of its manifest justice, however, a police judge hardly would dare to render such an opinion anywhere else but in Washington, where the office is appointive and not subject to the votes of men.

ed. Who says Russia is not moving

VINOL CURES CHRONIC COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS After Other Remedies Fail

"I have been troubled with a chronic cold and bronchitis for a long time and have tried many remedies without finding relief. Through the kind suggestion of a friend I tried Vinol, and after taking four bottles, am entirely cured." A. H. Wilde, 733-8th Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

S. McDonald, 147 W. Congress St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter and thought I would never get rid of it. I tried Vinol as a last resort, and it has completely cured me."

Vinol combines two world-famed tonics, the healing, medicinal properties of cod liver oil and tonic iron, deliciously palatable and agreeable to the weakest stomach. For this reason, Vinol is unexcelled as a strength-builder for old people, delicate children, weak and run-down persons, after sickness and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.

SEDALIA THEATER.

The Ranch, the Girl and the Cowboy. George Miller, the German pianist, eight pretty show girls, a quartette of clever comedians and nineteen song hits—all in "The Ranch, the Girl and the Cowboy," the western musical comedy that you can see at the Sedalia theater Thanksgiving matinee and night.

"The Cow Puncher."

The touch of nature that makes the whole world kin is seen in the new play, "The Cow Puncher," by Hal Reid, which will be seen at the Sedalia theater Sunday night, for an engagement. The play is intensely interesting and has a wholesome amount of comedy that makes it thoroughly enjoyable to the discriminating theater goers. W. F. Mann, the producer, has given it a magnificent production, and several new vaudeville features have been introduced.

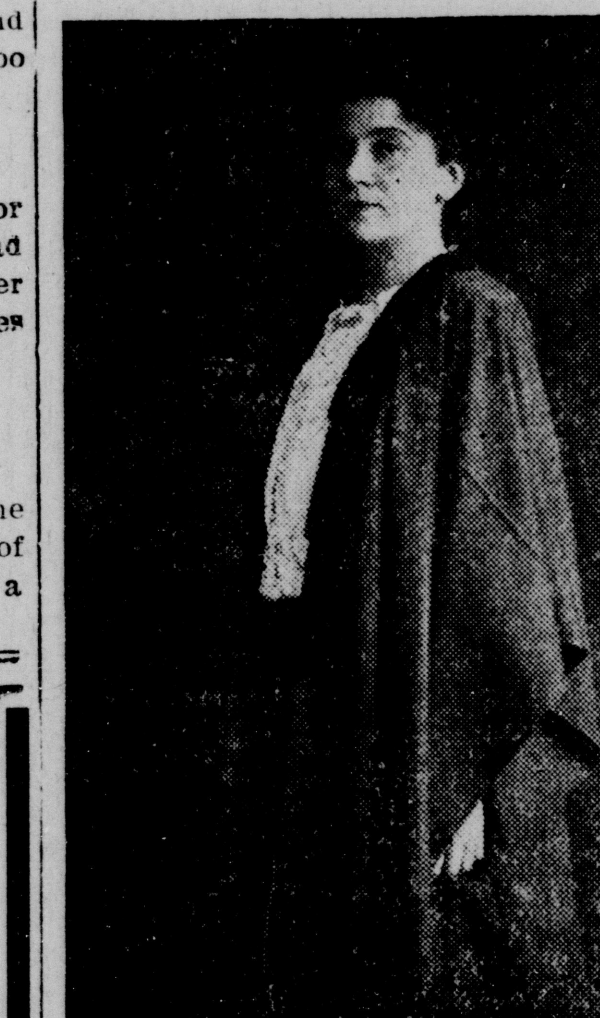

Tim Murphy in "Cupid and the Dollar."

Tim Murphy offers as his play for this season a new comedy called "Cupid and the Dollar." It gives to this always clever exponent of high class comedy an unlimited opportunity to again distinguish himself as a player of merit. While it is a powerful story it is not devoid of comedy situations, for there are many amusing and logical episodes brought about as a frame work for the more dramatic situations, with back of all a beautifully conceived love theme. In presenting "Cupid and the Dollar" Mr. Murphy has considered every occasion by which to make this a strictly high class entertainment, and offers it beautifully mounted, elaborately costumed and carefully cast. Among his accompanying players will be Dorothy Sherrod in the principal feminine role, enacting a part aptly suited to her. "Cupid and the Dollar," with Tim Murphy and players, will be seen at the Sedalia theater on Monday night, November 30th.

Harrison Grey Fiske has surrounded Madame Kalich with the strongest company that has ever supported her and he has given "Cora" the most elaborate and complete of scenic effects—two extra large cars being necessary to transport the company's belongings. The production will be given here exactly as it is being given at the present time at Kansas City, where Madame Kalich is repeating former triumphs and the play is creating a sensation.

Parties will attend the Kalich engagement at Wood's opera house Saturday evening, November 28 from the following towns: Warrensburg, Knobnoster, Lamonte, Lexington, Higgins-

A CLOSING-OUT SALE

Kemp Hieronymus Conducted It for E. W. Hughes.

Ed W. Hughes having decided to remove to Oklahoma held a closing out sale of his personal property at Greenlawn, twelve miles north, Tuesday.

The sale was well attended by his neighbors, who proved liberal buyers, and satisfactory prices were realized on stock, especially. One pair of 4-year old mules brought $250; a pair of work horses went at $250; a saddle and driving horse for $101, and other stock in proportion.

Milch cows sold from $27 to $38; brood sows sold from $9 to $14.50, and stock hogs at about 5 cents per pound.

Col. Kemp Hieronymus conducted the sale to the satisfaction of Mr. Hughes, and Col. Tom Roberts looked after the books, the sale amounting to about $1,500.

Jake Broyles served a substantial lunch to the satisfaction of all.

National Stock Yards, Ill., Nov. 24.
—Cattle receipts 3,500; no choice heavy weights on sale. General steer market strong and active; cows and heifers steady. Good heavy feeders strong; others slow. Good fat steers in the yearling order are in the best demand, and consequently quickest sellers. We look for more moderate supplies during the remainder of this week, and a little further advance in values seems assured. Top veal calves $6.75. Supplies of that kind have been liberal the last few days.

Hog receipts 8,500; market opened strong, with a few selected heavy weights up to $6.15, which represents top. A reaction soon set in, however, and the bulk of all the hogs today sold about 10 cents lower than yesterday's bulk, or at $5.45 and $5.90. A good many hogs unsold, which is not very promising for the next few days, owing to the holiday, Thursday.

Sheep receipts 1,500; market active, and 25c to 50c higher than the close of last week. Choice mutton sheep today sold up to $4.50; yearlings up to $4.85, and lambs up to $5.75. Lighter supplies the next few days will doubtless keep the market in good condition.—National Live Stock Commission Co.

The Official Mind.

The government requires 43,925 quarts of writing fluid (recent statistics) simply because when the government wants to tell a man—say, an examination candidate—to sit down at his desk, it says not "Pray be seated," but "The candidate (or candidates) is (or are) requested and commanded to take (or adopt) his (or her) seat (or seats) at the table (or tables) with his (or her) pen (or pens) in his (or her) hand (or hands)."—The London Daily Mirror.

APE THE CUSTOMS OF EUROPE.

Caste Spirit as it is Manifested in Europe.

There are no classes in American society, it is true, but in Philadelphia they have traditions and prejudices that "draw the line" now and then pretty effectively. For example, the 24 grandeur buses in the Hammerstein opera house in that city are not sold by auction but allotted to the elite by a committee of five women of ancient Philadelphia ancestry.

"We want opera in Philadelphia," said one of the committee, "but we do not want the best seats in the house to go to everyone who applies just because he has money enough to buy them. We want the seats in the grand tier to go to the representative Philadelphia families who have a right to them."

The "hobo millionaire" does not break into society in Philadelphia. His grandson may get on the waiting list.

The Unreliable Clock. Mrs. Blank had been paying a charitable visit to poor old Victorine Dupreux, whom she found crippled with rheumatism. But if Victorine's limbs were disabled, her always entertaining tongue was not, and the time passed swiftly.

"Mercy!" at last cried the lady, glancing at the clock that ticked wheezily above the French woman's stove. "Here it is five o'clock and I should have gone home half an hour ago!"

"Give yourself no distress, madame," reassured Victorine. "Monseigneur dose clock, she sees to it herself for more than six years. She sees now to a preciseness one hour fast an' 15 minute slow."

South Carolina Cure for Fleas.

Go to the woods, cut a medium sized sapling, peel the bark off, and lay the sapling where the fleas abound—in hog bed or stable. The fleas will jump on the white wood and be so busy with the sap or moisture that the sapling can be taken up, carried away, and dropped with its full passenger list of fleas. The operation may be repeated until all the fleas are carried off. That is the plan of a great cypress brother in black—Harnwell (S. C.) People.

Lime Water Good for Teeth. Physicians who have experimented believe that excellent results are obtained for the teeth by the use of simple lime water. It is claimed that the reason of the fine bony structures of people and horses in the blue-grass region of Kentucky is due to the lime-soaked vegetation. It is argued that a mild amount of lime taken into the system when a child will improve the structural condition of the teeth.

A Word from Josh Wise. "You are in luck if you can say: 'What shall I eat to-day?' The very rich, often, and the very poor, always say: 'What can I eat to-day?'"

Doing What We Can. Let us be content to do the thing we can and not presume to fret because it's little.—Mrs. Browning.

Australian Country Homes.

In the Blue mountains, three hours from Sydney, are many beautiful country houses, mostly bungalows with wide verandas all round, where Sydney people fly in February and March to get away from the heat of the city by the harbor.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early at the green stage they break, or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics.

Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Preventics may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child. If there is feverishness, night fever, here probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 1c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 43 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

"When We Are Old"

We need our sight just as much as we do now. We are always thinking about laying something by for a rainy day, but we are apt to neglect our eyes and allow them to get weak and lose their strength, so that when we are old they are very little use to us.

Whistling in English Streets.

In England whistling is very common among all classes, and, indeed, it is rare in London to see a butcher or a grocer boy on his daily errands whose lips are not pursed up for the purpose of emitting the whistling notes of the comic song of the hour. So prevalent is the habit that in hotels, and even in clubs, requests are posted up to "refrain from whistling."

"THE DEVIL'S PRAYER"

WAS EVANGELIST HAMILTON'S
THEME AT THE BROAD-WAY CHURCH.

SERMON ON THE UNPARDONABLE SIN

A Number Went Forward at the Close and the Power of God's Spirit Was Manifested Throughout the Evening.

Evangelist Hamilton's sermon last night on "The Devil's Prayer" made a profound impression upon the audience at the Broadway Presbyterian church. It was a sermon on the unpardonable sin.

A number went forward at the close, and the power of God's Spirit was manifest throughout the meeting. The singing, as usual, was a great inspiration. Miss Grace Campbell sang a solo, "Face to Face," and after the sermon Mr. Henderson sang "What Then?" The subject of tonight's sermon will be "Shelter."

The evangelist took for his text last night the words of the man possessed with a devil addressed to Jesus, "Let us alone." He said: "If there were evil spirits in the days of Jesus, there are evil spirits today in the children of disobedience. Some men care more for their pigs and for the margin on their goods than they do for the Lord Jesus."

"There are four times when this prayer, 'Let us alone,' is answered. Here and now, 'My Spirit will not always strive with men.' 'Quench not the spirit.' Therefore the Spirit can be quenched. He gives men over to their rebellious mind as he did of old. After He has wept and pleaded with some in vain He has given them the reins and let them go, saying, 'He is joined to his idols.' Many an unsaved man has heard enough preaching to convert Africa. 'There is a time, we know not when, a place we know not where, That seals the destiny of man. For glory or despair.'

"The devil's prayer is answered in death. In the mists and shadows of a gathering eternity he shall realize he is alone. What difference if your friends go with you down to the portals of eternity and you have no Savior saying, 'It is I. Be not afraid.' "The devil's prayer is answered in the judgment. The man who if let alone here and at death is let alone at the judgment bar of God. Men spurn the offer of salvation, they mock at the Bible and say there is no God, no eternity, no heaven, no retribution; but not at the judgment where they shall see Christ in all His majesty.

"The devil's prayer shall be answered in hell in conscious, unutterable and eternal suffering. No intelligent person wants to be thus let alone. Your heart is crying out after God. If you will start toward God He will run toward you.

"There are decisions for eternity tonight. As some shall decide this question they shall be on the upgrade to glory or on the downgrade to despair.

"Almost persuaded, harvest is past. Almost persuaded, doom comes at last.

Almost cannot avail, almost is but to fail.

Sad, sad, that bitter wail, Almost, but lost."

The meetings will close Sunday night.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

MR. JOHN M. EGAN WILL RETURN TO KANSAS CITY FROM BRAZIL, S. A.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

John M. Egan, who concluded the negotiations for a new union station in Kansas City before he went to South America in February, 1907, is coming back to the United States and to Kansas City. He may decide to make that city his home again.

Mr. Egan left Kansas City to go to South America to manage the Brazilian railroads owned by a syndicate headed by Sir William Van Horne of the Canadian Pacific. The syndicate has sold its holdings to a French company, and, it is said, Mr. Egan realized a large profit by the transaction.

Mr. Egan is now in London and will soon return to the United States.

Missouri Rate Case Postponed.

Judge Smith McPherson has postponed the Missouri freight and passenger rate hearing in Kansas City until December 14. It was to have been resumed there next Monday.

In a letter received by Frank Hagerman, leading counsel for the eighteen railroads involved, Judge McPherson says that because of added business in his own district in Iowa he finds it impossible to reopen the rate hearing in Kansas City on the first date set.

Vacancies for Brakemen.

Vacancies for brakemen were announced at the Missouri Pacific offices today as follows:

On trains Nos. 95 and 96 with Conductor R. J. Richard, for F. H. Fryatt, and on trains Nos. 64 and 77 with Conductor Norman Crawford, for J. E. Crawford. December 4 is the final date for filing applications for the place.

Engine Had No Headlight.

A Missouri Pacific engine without a headlight knocked down and ran over Frank Cooper, a well-known Kansas City stockman, in the yards in the East Bottoms there at 9 o'clock last night.

He will lose his left leg above the knee, and his right leg is badly injured.

STORY OF THANKSGIVING

FIRST SERVICES WERE HELD IN ENGLAND IN TIME OF CROMWELL.

FIRST PROCLAMATION NOV. 19, 1621

It Was by Governor Bradford to the Pilgrim Fathers—First by a President Was in 1782, By Washington.

New York, Nov. 24.—Where were Thanksgiving services first held?

In England, during the time of Cromwell, thanksgiving days were common occurrences.

The discovery of the "gunpowder plot" in 1605 was followed by a thanksgiving in England and that nation observed the day on many like occasions, the last probably being a national thanksgiving when the Prince of Wales, now Edward VII, recovered from a serious illness.

Where and when was the first Thanksgiving service in the new world?

The first thanksgiving held in America was not held within the bounds of the United States, but on the shore of Newfoundland May 27, 1572, and the services were held by the Rev. Mr. Wilfall, an English minister. He accompanied an early colony from England. It was claimed that it was the first christian sermon preached in the new world.

When was the first thanksgiving proclamation in this country.

Nov. 19, 1621; made by Governor Bradford to the Pilgrim fathers. He announced that since they had just gathered abundant harvests of grain and the cold weather had sent plenty of game to their forests, December 13, 1621, would be observed throughout the Plymouth colony as a day of thanksgiving.

Who signed the first thanksgiving proclamation ever issued by a president?

George Washington, in 1782.

Who originated the modern Thanksgiving day, as it is observed in the United States?

The Thanksgiving, as it occurs today, dates from 1864, when President Lincoln issued a proclamation setting apart the last Thursday in November of that year, as a day of national thanksgiving.

Each succeeding president has annually proclaimed a thanksgiving day which is generally followed by similar proclamations by the governors of the various states.

Who makes the Thanksgiving proclamation?

The president of the United States.

How is it done?

The president writes it out with his own hand, trying to put in it as much of the spirit of the day as possible. This is not an easy task. He must avoid repeating expressions that have been used by preceding presidents, and yet he must cover the same ground that they cover. When he has finished writing it out it is copied and this copy is sent to the state department. One of the clerks who is a good penman, writes the proclamation artistically on parchment. The parchment is then sent back to the White House and the president signs it; after that it is taken back to the state department, where the secretary of state adds his name; then the great seal of the state department is affixed. In order to put the great seal on the parchment a note from the president is necessary, in which he says: "I hereby authorize and direct the secretary of state to cause the seal of the United States to be affixed to my Thanksgiving proclamation, dated this day and signed by me, and for so doing this shall be his warrant."

What is done with the proclamation when it has been thus written and signed?

A great many clerks are then ordered to make as many copies of the proclamation as there are governors of states and territories. These copies are written by hand on long sheets of blue paper. The state department never uses the typewriter or any other means except artistic handwriting for making copies of official correspondence.

What do the different governors of the states do when they have received their copies of the president's proclamation?

They then write special proclamations of their own, announcing to the people of their states the fact that the president has fixed on such and such a day for the observance of thanksgiving, worship and festivities.

HOW THANKSGIVING DAY WILL BE OBSERVED IN NEW YORK CITY.

SALVATION ARMY WILL FEED HOSTS

Annual Spread for the Newsboys of the City—What Some of the Most Prominent Men Are Truly Thankful For.

New York, Nov. 25.—In the mansions in Fifth avenue, in the more modest homes in Harlem, Brooklyn and the Bronx, in the tenements of the East Side, in the refuges where Charity spreads the board, and even in the jails and prisons, Thanksgiving day will be observed tomorrow with all the joy and jollity which always characterizes the holiday in the metropolis. As usual, business will be generally suspended and the millions of New York citizens will exude the Thanksgiving spirit and absorb the Thanksgiving turkey and other delicacies.

As usual, the Salvation Army will provide a great dinner for thousands in several places in Manhattan and Brooklyn. Army officials estimate that a quarter of a million people will be rendered happy by free dinners from all sources. Thousands of families will receive baskets of food from the Army and other charitable organizations and individuals.

Even in the grim prisons at Blackwell's Island and Sing Sing the prisoners will have a holiday and be given a feast which will include turkey, cranberry sauce and mince pie. All the immigrants at Ellis Island will also have a great feed which is likely to confirm their opinion that America is the land of luxury for all.

There will be the annual dinner for the "newsies" in the Newsboys' home in Chambers street. This feast serves to keep green in the hearts of the lads the memory of their benefactor, Mrs. William Waldorf Astor, who provided for it in her will. Each boy will get a pound of turkey meat, a whole mince pie and a plentiful supply of celery, potatoes, cranberries, bread and butter and tea, coffee or milk.

At the Bowery Mission there will be a dinner for nearly 2,000 at nothing a plate, and 1,500 men will be fed to repletion at the Episcopal City mission in Broome street. The Bowery branch of the Y. M. C. A. will serve a turkey dinner at 5 cents a plate, just to make the diners feel independent.

What They Are Thankful For.

Teddy—That I will soon have a long rest, with nothing to do but run the United States senate and Harvard university, edit the Outlook, write books and magazine articles at a dollar a word, travel in Europe and kill all the big game in Africa.

Taft—That the White House has a big bath tub and wide doors.

Bryan—For the Chautauqua circuit. Sherman—Of Taft & Sherman—That I am by nature retiring and unobtrusive, anyway, and don't mind it. T. Gobbler—Nothing; I am all out about it.

Wu Ting Fang—That I am a vegetarian—considering the price of turkeys.

'Gene Debs—Better luck next time. Edward VII.—That the king business is still good in England, even if Neighbor Bill does have his troubles. Abdul the Damned—For the biggest crop of young Turks that the country ever had.

Battling Nelson—Hey, ho, didn't I knock the stuffing out of Joe and get away with all the dark meat in the platter?

All the Fishes—That Thanksgiving day doesn't fall on Friday.

Hearst—That there are still a few letters in existence and another campaign is coming.

Kern, formerly of Bryan & Kern—Well, just see what I have escaped.

Thaw—That I am becoming accustomed to being crazy.

Uncle Joe—That I can still stand pat.

Jim Jeffries—That the prohibition wave hasn't stuck California.

Ryan—That I have always preserved my honesty and integrity—just look at poor Morse.

John D.—That justice is still meted out in the courts of the land and that twenty-nine millions is yet out's.

Hughes—Of course I'm thankful, but who is this person Chanler, anyway?

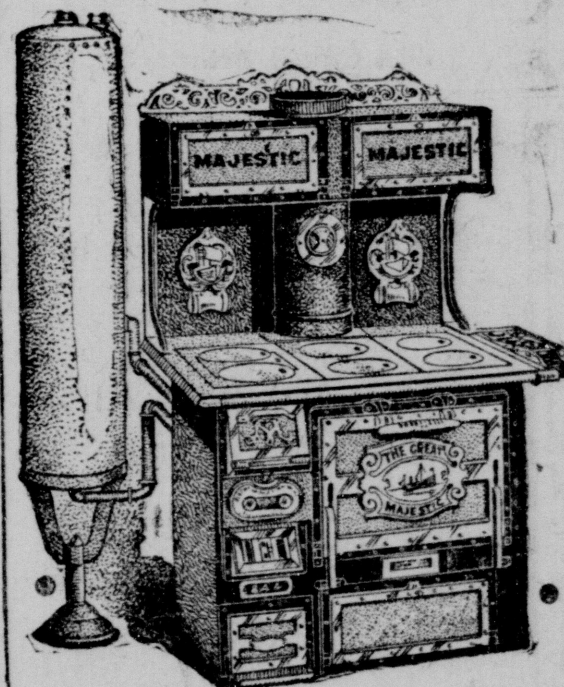

Foraker—That the public hasn't a long memory.

A Big Auto Meet in Denver.

SMOKY CITY'S BIRTHDAY

Pittsburg, Pa., is Celebrating 150th Anniversary.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 25.—Pittsburg was 150 years old today, and the sesqui-centennial was observed with a big mass meeting in Exposition Museum hall.

Addresses were made by Governor Stuart, Baron Lagerkrantz, the Swedish minister to Washington, and other notables. Mayor Guthrie presided at the celebration.

An elaborate musical program, rendered by the Pittsburg orchestra and the Mozart club, featured the event. There were also meetings and services at churches throughout the city and the schools observed the anniversary with special exercises.

Another meeting will be held in Exposition hall this evening, at which the addresses will be of a historical character.

The principal speakers will be Hampton R. Carson, former attorney general of Pennsylvania, and Charlemagne Tower, late ambassador to Germany. The music will be by the Pittsburg orchestra.

JOSEPH GANS 34 TODAY

"OLD MASTER" OF THE MIDDLE-WEIGHTS IS CELEBRATING EVENT.

"BRING HOME THE BACON" NO MORE

New Devoting His Time to His Hotel in Baltimore, Md., and Also Looking After His Other Business Interests.

Baltimore, Nov. 25.—Joseph Gans, colored, the former "old master" of the lightweights, is today celebrating his 34th birthday. It is a sad occasion for Joseph, as it is the first birthday he has had since he became a permanent member of the Down and Out club.

Joe will never again "bring home the bacon" to his old Baltimore "mammy," and none realizes this fact better than he. The former champion is now devoting his time to his local hotel and other business interests, although it is rumored that devotion to the colored man's favorite game of chance, craps, has been greater than his devotion to business, with the result that he is on the verge of financial disaster. Joe denies these tales, and declares he has enough coin to keep him comfortably for the balance of his life, but he admits a fondness for the "seven-come-leben" game.

Gans began his ring career in 1891, and continued it almost without intermission until his recent double defeat by Battling Nelson put him permanently on the shelf, from a pugilistic standpoint. Physically, Gans is yet far from ready for being "Oslered," but he has lost the stamina and cleverness that once made him the black terror of all the lightweights.

Gans' ring career has been in many respects among the most remarkable in the history of American pugilism. In the year of 1891, when he first appeared in the ring as a professional fighter, and the three following he fought twelve battles, winning eight of them by straight knockouts. He continued this string of victories until July 15, 1895, when he was defeated in twenty rounds by George Siddons. Young Griffo also defeated him in November of that year and Gans got back at Siddons by knocking him out in seven rounds on Nov. 28. Danny McBride was the next man to defeat the negro; that was on Aug. 31, 1896, after he had won a long string of bouts. He fought only a few bouts from that time until 1898, and then started a career of victories which was not broken until George McFadden knocked him out in New York in a 23-round bout, April 14, 1899. McFadden outpointed him again two months later, but in October Gans evened the score by winning in twenty-five rounds.

In the last six years Gans has fought steadily several times a year and in that time has been defeated but eight times. The biggest purse which he has won since he donned the mitts was for his match with Battling Nelson at Goldfield, Nev., when he won from the Dane on a foul. For this bout a purse of $33,500 was offered, but of this sum, Gans received only $11,000 for winning, as he had agreed to give Nelson the balance, win, lose or draw.

A GREAT WRESTLING MATCH

Each Contestant Declares That He Is in Fine Condition.

New York, Nov. 25.—Yussiff Mahmoud, the terrible Bulgarian, and Tom Jenkins, of West Point, former champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler of the United States, will be the principals in a wrestling match at Madison Square garden tomorrow night.

It has been a long time since metropolitan sports have had an opportunity to see mat artists of the first class in action and a big crowd will doubtless fill the garden.

The Marathon race between Hayes and Dorando this evening and tomorrow's grappling contest will make this a real Thanksgiving period for New York sporting men.

Poth Yussiff and Jenkins declare that they are in prime condition for the test of strength and skill, and a desperate struggle should result. If

If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultant, as bronchial, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native medicinal roots and is safe and reliable. A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Jenkins wins a victory over the Bulgarian, his manager may attempt to arrange another meeting with Gotch, while if Yussiff wins, he will challenge the champion to do battle.
